Adaptive Sports Jamboree of Washington

The Jamboree is an introduction/opportunity to learn more about Adaptive Sports/Equipment. It's for individuals, parents, therapists, teachers, recreation professionals and interested others to learn about competitions involving adaptive sports, and much more. Information on Regional, National, and International Competitions will be available for individuals interested in Sanctioned Competitive Sports or just Recreation. It will also offer information on how a participant could train on their own in the community or school and work towards a sports scholarship to a college or university.

Please Note: The Jamboree is geared towards youth and adults who have the ability to follow a sequence of instructions.

This program is not affiliated with Special Olympics, which is for youth/adults with developmental disabilities.
